

Incident Safety Officer

Course Description

The position of the incident safety officer is identified within the incident management system as used within the emergency response community, this position requires a person to have an understanding of emergency operations including but not limited to; fire suppression, emergency medical operations, technical operations, hazardous materials operations and other emergencies that an agency could be called to, understand building construction, fire behavior, fire ground operations, fire fighter safety, risk management and development of IAP's. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be recommended to take the Fire Officer I certification examination offered by the Firefighter and Emergency Responder Certification Program.

Students will be recommended to take the Fire Officer I certification examination offered by the Firefighter and Emergency Responder Certification Program. This is optional and will be given at the conclusion of the course.

Certification Information

Candidates shall be at least 18 years of age. Complete a practical skills evaluation with a "Passing" score. Complete an 80 question written examination with a passing score of 70% or higher.

Reference List:

NFPA 1521, Standard for Standard for Fire Department Safety Officer, Chapter 5, 2015 Edition
 Jones and Bartlett, Fire Department Incident Safety Officer, 3rd Edition

Class Notes

Hours	Cost
40	$180/$600

Additional Information:
 80% attendance and participation is required in order to successfully complete the course and receive the course completion certificate.

Pre-tests and Post-tests may be given to assess the knowledge obtained from the course.

A pre-course assignment may be given.

The lower listed cost applies to all Louisiana Municipal Fire Departments who are issued a Fire Department ID from the State Fire Marshal's Office.

Course Cost & Dates Subject to Change